

The South Asian Bar Association of Connecticut

Invites You To Join Us For A Panel Discussion on:

“Domestic Violence in Immigrant Communities: a Complex Problem, a Collaborative Solution.”

Wednesday, April 21, 2010 at 5:30pm

5:30pm: Hors D' Oeuvres

6:00pm: Panel Discussion

7:00pm: Dinner

Panelists:

Enelsa Diaz, Esq.

Staff Attorney, Greater Hartford Legal Aid, Inc.

Erika M. Tindill, Esq.

*Executive Director
Connecticut Coalition Against Domestic Violence*

Shanthi Rao, MSW

Coordinator, Interval House West

Dr. Jyothi Vayalakkara

Board Member, Sneha, Inc.

Krishna R. Patel, Esq. (Moderator)

*Assistant U.S. Attorney, District of Connecticut
Board Member, SABAC*

Location:

Taste of India

139 South Main Street West Hartford, CT 06107

Cost:

Minimum Donation of $25.00 per person made payable or designated to either:
The Connecticut Coalition Against Domestic Violence (CCADV) (www.ctcadv.org) or Sneha, Inc. (www.sneha.org)

Please RSVP by April 19, 2010.

Responses and Questions May be Directed to Andy Corea: (203) 324-6155; acorea@ssjr.com or Cecil Thomas (860) 541-5017; cthomas@ghla.org

Sponsored by: The South Asian Bar Association of Connecticut and St. Onge Steward
Johnston & Reens, LLC